Jamie Anderson  Singer - Songwriter - Parking Lot Attendant

Touring since the eighties, singer-songwriter-parking lot attendant Jamie Anderson has played her warm and witty songs in hundreds of coffeehouses, concert halls, colleges and festivals in four countries and forty seven states.

Laughter is a big part of Jamie's live performance. Her offbeat song intros and stories help keep the performance fun but don't be surprised when she delves into more serious issues. She's emceed at many events and twirls the baton badly, sometimes at the same time. She's also a bellydancer and former radio DJ, never at the same time.

She has eight albums including her newest, Three Bridges. Her music has been featured on Good Morning America, the Dr. Demento radio show, NPR's Car Talk, and stations all over the world. Jamie loves being a musician, so she doesn't really park cars, but her mama said she should have something to fall back on.

Jamie's expressive voice and personable stage manner are an asset to any stage. She loves to perform but you really don't want to hand her keys to your Volvo unless payment includes chocolate.

*"...folk music of humor and compassion played by a charismatic woman."
--Gene Armstrong, Arizona Daily Star, Tucson*
